HIGH-FLYING DEFINITION

Per Se White Label has launched and landed. This "Everyday Sport" collection mixes beautifully with both the Carlisle and Per Se collections, offering edgy choices and definitive style.

She wears Per Se White Label Charna, a glove leather shirtdress with deep zip-patch pockets and gold hardware detailing, $995.

Carlos Ruiz

Per Se White Label Motocross techno vest, $495, Chechr essential stretch modal jersey fitted top, $195, Twilight techno flat-front leggings with faux leather waistband, $325, Penelope black water snake and leather mini satchel, $425.

CITY SCAPE STYLE

Carlisle pumps up paisley, and Per Se riffs on perforated leather. Both are trends of the season done with no fuss! Coordinated accessories finish the looks and make dressing a breeze.

Carlisle Paisley, a cotton/ silk paisley print hourglass-shaped dress, $555 with matching silk georgette wrap, $195, Alabaster belt, $160.

She wears Wheat a sorbet and biscuit jersey cardigan with silk crepe de chine trim, $365 matching Wheat reversible (v-neckline on the back) sleeveless top, $215, Taylor sorbet perforated glove leather skirt, $795, Contessa 24K Gold-plated necklace, $265, Charlotte pebble leather bag, $475.

WAX POETIC

New techno fabrics lend a waxy finish to outerwear by Per Se. Geometric shapes in brights and whites give precision to sportswear that's not too casual or too dressy.

Here: She wears Per Se Limone, a double-breasted polyurethane cocoon-styled jacket, $625 with Optic silk tunic blouse, $345.

There: Per Se White Label Frost, a water-repellent linen glazed slicker with drawstring details, $645. Soho leggings from the Essential line, $295. She carries Flamenco, a finished leather tote, $425.

UPGRADE STRIPES AND FLORALS

Carlisle sets stripes askew for custom flair. Flowers in black and white provide an unexpected yet simple style solution.

Here: Grassgreen fitted jacket with zip cuffs and a multiple rows of trapunto stitch detailing at the collar, $525, Vertigo skirt with varied widths of Grass Green appliquéd cotton ribbon, $425.

There: Flora cardigan with grosgrain ribbon trim, $345, Flora sleeveless knit top, woven print perfectly engineered to line up with cardigan, $235. Slim fit Boulevard pant, $325.
